

TWO STEAMERS DAMAGED.

Malabar's Bridges and Boat Carried Off and Her Deck Swept.

Havel Loses a Boat and Ventilators—Animals for Barnum.

The steamer Malabar, Capt. Allen, arrived in port today from Rotterdam, from where she sailed March 15. She reports that she had a continuation of fierce gales and heavy seas on the voyage. She lost one lifeboat and two others damaged. Her fore and aft bridges were carried away, and everything movable was washed off the deck.

A heavy swell carried away her after port lifeboat, broke the rail and carried away the gateway ladder and several ventilators.

Among her passengers was George O. Starr, representing the Barnum & Bailey Circus. He has secured two great attractions for the steamer, which are coming on the Portuguese steamer Vega, from Lisbon. They are a lion and a tiger, and a pair of elephants, and a pair of giraffes.

HANGED FOR WIFE-MURDER.

Dennis Cloonan Pays the Death Penalty at Pittsburgh To-Day.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 6.—Dennis Cloonan was hanged here at 10:59 A. M. to-day for the murder of his wife.

Cloonan's neck was not broken and he died of strangulation. The legs were drawn up several times and there was a visible twitching of the body. In ten minutes he was extinct, and two minutes later the body was lowered.

Cloonan's crime was one of the most brutal murders in the police annals of Allegheny county. On the evening of March 17, Cloonan, a very drunk man, went to his home and abused his wife.

The couple had lived happily for several years. The neighbors heard Mrs. Cloonan screaming, and shortly afterwards a loud knock came at the door. Cloonan rushed to the door, and found his wife lying on the floor, her head beaten almost to a pulp.

Heide her on the floor lay the remains of a heavy oak chair, which had been broken in pieces by the murderer in his brutal assault. Cloonan admitted the crime.

The only evidence of emotion Cloonan exhibited when he was taken to the gallows was a slight shiver of his lips as he bade a last farewell to his four sons and two places on Tuesday evening.

For more than twenty years Cloonan attended to the switches on the Pennsylvania railroad at Second street, and in all that time lost but two days.

WILLIAM MOORE EXECUTED.

Slayer of a Rival in Love Pays the Penalty at Moyamensing Prison.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—William Moore, colored, was hanged in Moyamensing Prison this morning. The drop fell at ten o'clock. The body was hanging for twenty minutes, but nothing was noticeable except a twitching of the muscles.

William Moore, colored, aged twenty-two years, shot and killed his successful rival in love, Charles Madison, colored, in Philadelphia on the morning of March 17. Both men were sailors for the hand of Amelia Johnson, colored.

WILL ENTERTAIN NOBILITY.

Reception and Ball for the Duke de Veragua.

The special committee of thirty of the Chamber of Commerce have arranged a program for the reception and entertainment of the Duke de Veragua, a descendant of Columbus, and other distinguished visitors who will stop over in New York for a few days on the way to the World's Fair.

On the evening of the day of the naval parade, April 28, a ball will be given in Madison Square Garden to the visiting naval officers and the notable guests. A dinner will also be given at the Waldorf-Astoria on the morning of the parade.

The historical society has appointed a committee to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce in the reception of the Duke de Veragua.

WELCOMING A NEW OFFICER.

Steamship Men Shake Hands with the Immigration Commissioner.

Commissioner of Immigration James D. Smith, who arrived in New York yesterday, was called upon by the various steamship agents of the various steamship companies who called upon him to pay their respects and to congratulate him upon his appointment to the office on Ellis Island.

The shipmen went over to the 11 o'clock boat and were introduced to the new Commissioner of Immigration by the various steamship agents.

Among the number were P. W. Gibson, representing the United Fruit Company, and Mr. W. H. Smith, representing the Hamburg-American Line. Mr. W. H. Smith, representing the Hamburg-American Line, and Mr. W. H. Smith, representing the Hamburg-American Line.

Commercial Bank of Australia to Be Reconstructed.

MELBOURNE, April 6.—At a meeting of shareholders and depositors of the Commercial Bank of Australia, Limited, which lately suspended, a proposal to reorganize the bank was adopted with enthusiasm and unanimity. The proposed scheme of reconstruction being that a new company should be formed with a capital of £200,000.

Post-Office at Ithaca Robbed.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 6.—The post-office in this city was entered by burglars last night. The thieves gained an entrance through a window, and were seen in the office soon after midnight. They were supposed to be carrying off the money and valuables in the office, consequently they were not disturbed. They took about $500 in cash.

MRS. MACKAY HIRES A SPECIAL.

She May Break the Record Between Chicago and 'Frisco.

Chicago, April 6.—Mrs. J. W. Mackay, wife of the California millionaire, passed through Chicago at midnight, hurrying westward to the bedside of her husband in San Francisco.

The train over the Michigan Central to which her special car was attached, was two hours late in reaching Chicago, and did not make the connection with the train for the coast which left at 10 o'clock.

After than the departure of the next train, she ordered a special engine to haul her car 200 miles across the country to San Francisco.

One of the fastest engines on the Northwestern was in readiness, and when it was ordered to start it was drawn across the city from sixteenth street, it started with its solitary travelers on what promises to be the fastest trip ever made from Chicago to San Francisco. Accompanying Mrs. Mackay is her son, Charles.

HARRIS BECOMING ANXIOUS.

His Mother May Make a Personal Appeal to Gov. Flower.

SING SING, N. Y., April 6.—Carlyle W. Harris, who is confined in the death-house awaiting execution on May 8, was somewhat surprised to hear that Gov. Flower had set April 28 as the date for receiving the petition for a commutation of the death sentence.

Harris and his lawyers are considering the advisability of having his mother make a personal appeal to the Governor, as she cannot be permitted to do so. It is probable she will accompany a lawyer to Albany next Monday.

The condemned man has got the impression that the Governor is anxious to hear and dispose of his case. At first Harris said he would not be satisfied with anything short of a pardon or a trial, but as the time for his execution drew near, he has become more anxious, and realizes that he will be lucky if he is commuted to imprisonment for life.

TROUBLE AT CITY ISLAND.

The Democratic Supervisor Disputes Republican McAllister's Election.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., April 6.—The Town Board of this town met today to make a record of the vote cast for Supervisor at the town election a week ago Tuesday. The candidates were Sherman T. Pell, present incumbent and Democrat, and William McAllister, Republican. The latter claims to have been elected by three votes.

Pell refused to concede the election to McAllister and believes that the recount will show that he was fairly elected.

There is considerable excitement in the town, and the little court-room in the town hall is crowded with people with politicians and City Island boatmen.

When the election the ballots have been carefully guarded by two constables to prevent being tampered with. The result of the recount is awaited with much interest.

LECTURERS WILL DINE.

Annual Dinner Will Be Held Next Saturday Evening.

The third annual dinner of the lecturers and superintendents who have for several years conducted "The Evening Work" lecture course will be held at Clark's, 22 West Twenty-third street, next Saturday evening. The arrangements for the dinner are in the hands of the following committee: F. S. DeLanahan, F. W. Fisher, F. A. Lyons, H. W. Smith and Maguire.

The success of the free evening lectures as a means of imparting knowledge to the working classes has been most encouraging, and the lecturers are anxious to make the subjects take a wide range, and a regular attendance during the lecture season is expected.

That they are appreciated by the people is evidenced by the large audiences which attend the lectures, and the interest in the subject.

To Be Wedded To-Day.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Douglas and Mr. Thomas H. Kenyon will take place this afternoon at the present home of the bride, the Hotel Endicott, on West Eighty-first street. A reception lasting till 10 o'clock will follow the ceremony.

Miss Charlotte Lee, only daughter of the late John H. Lee, will be married this evening at the Hotel Endicott to Mr. Thomas H. Kenyon, a son of the late William H. Kenyon, a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club, in George's church, St. Vincent square.

When Others Fail

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is an easy food—it is more than food, if you please; but it is a food—to bring back plumpness to those who have lost it.

Do you know what it is to be plump?

Thinness is poverty, living from hand to mouth. To be plump is to have a little more than enough, a reserve.

Do you want a reserve of health? Let us send you a book on CAREFUL LIVING, free.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

three times a day, and we shall always keep it. Timothy Powell, Burke, Franklin Co., N. Y.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. Try a box.

MORE THAN $50,000 NEEDED.

City Club's Campaign Fund Not Enough to Fight the Tiger.

Would Hardly Provide Wet Goods in One District.

MAYOR GILROY was asked this morning what he thought of the action of the City Club last night in determining to try the efficacy of the almighty dollar to secure municipal reform.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

The words having failed to convince the people what a good thing the City Club would be to the city, the club has concluded to try the power of the check book.

"What can I say?" said His Honor. "Why, nothing."

ACCUSES HIM OF PERJURY.

Justice Taintor Catches a Policeman in a Lie.

Stanley Swore He Was Not in a Saloon and Then Said He Was.

PATROLMAN LADISLAW STANLEY, of the Fourteenth Precinct, made an arrest last night that is likely to cause him more trouble than he calculated upon. As it was his opportunity to catch a policeman in a lie, he has been accused of perjury.

He appeared in court with Frederick H. Hauff, of 141 East Third street, as a prisoner, and made a charge against him of having been drunk and disorderly.

Hauff, who is rather a large, portly German, when asked by the Court what he had to say, denied having been drunk, and told a straightforward story of his arrest.

He had been lacerated by the trade unions, he said, and they had caused him to be taken to a saloon, where he was kept until he was able to get home.

"But you honor," said Hauff, "I have witnesses."

The witnesses were questioned by the Justice and corroborated Hauff's statement in every particular.

"This testimony is against you, officer. Are you sure you didn't go in that saloon?" asked the Justice.

"No, I did not," answered Stanley, who was standing by the witness.

"You mean by coming here and under oath, that you were not in that saloon?" asked the Justice.

"Yes, I am," answered Stanley, who was standing by the witness.

"You can be assured I'll do that," replied the prisoner. He left in the wake of the policeman, who was going to the station-house and make complaint.

GETTING THE BIG FAIR READY.

1,827 Carloads of Exhibits Already Received at Jackson Park.

CHICAGO, April 6.—In a report to the Board of Control yesterday, Director-General Davis said that 1,827 carloads of exhibits had been received at the park. The large proportion of these are for the foreign sections.

Mr. Davis reports that 23,000 names of exhibitors have been received, and that the first edition will be ready May 1, and a month later the second edition of complete catalogue will be out.

HAYES STILL IN THE TOMBS.

He Secures a Respite to Settle His Domestic Affairs.

Col. William H. Hayes will not be taken to Sing Sing today to serve out his eight-year sentence for perjury.

At the Sheriff's office it was said this morning that Hayes would leave the city in all probability on an early train to-morrow morning.

The reason of the delay was the decision of Sheriff Hoffman to give the convicted prisoner an opportunity to settle up his affairs with his wife.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN ARKANSAS.

The Fair Sex May Vote and Hold Places on School Boards.

LITTLE ROCK, April 6.—The senate passed yesterday conferring on the women of Arkansas the right of suffrage and making them eligible to membership on school boards.

GRAB SNAKES BY THE NECK.

Dr. Allen's Advice for an Emergency.

For the instruction of New Yorkers in general and members of the Union Society in particular, Dr. C. S. Allen sends the following information: In an encounter with rattlesnakes and other venomous reptiles they should be grabbed by the neck.

This was the substance of the doctor's lecture to the Union Society last night. An illustration of a rattlesnake was shown, and the doctor explained the various parts of the snake and the danger of its bite.

Against Low and Order Leagues.

A church people in Jersey city are still discussing the speech of Bishop Fitzgerald before the Methodist Alliance last night in which, referring to New Jersey's racing scandal, he did not believe in law and order leagues.

More Trouble on Blackwell's Island.

Mary Jones, fifty years old, and Mary McGee, aged thirty-seven, inmates of the Workhouse on Blackwell's Island, were yesterday taken to the hospital at St. Vincent's, where they were cared for at the work house.

Macys Employees' Entertainments.

The Mutual Benefit Association, composed of Macys employees, will give an entertainment at the Grand Central Palace on Saturday evening.

LITTLE HOPE FOR CARRIERS.

Superintendent Morgan Knows Nothing About More Pay.

Superintendent of the City Delivery Morgan, at the Post-Office, said today that he did not believe the proposed compensation of letter-carriers for time spent in "waiting" for mail was practicable.

A despatch from Washington this morning said that Postmaster-General Russell intended to arrange for the compensation of the carriers who are not paid for all their time.

"After our present schedule," said Sup. Morgan, "the men are paid for the actual work in delivering and collecting mail. We would not be able to pay a man eight hours a day for waiting for mail."

There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations.

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

"There are 12,121 carriers in the city, and every one of them favors the proposition to compensate them for useless time spent in the stations."

THEY MEAN IT.

THE GUARANTEE A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

Which Drs. Copeland and Gardner Make for One Month—It Will Put an End to Much Vague Talk That Comes from Incompetence and Jealousy.

We cure the patient or refund the money.

That's all there is to it.

Every patient applying to Drs. Copeland and Gardner during the month of April or renewing treatment during the month of April receives an absolute guarantee.

The only exceptions are patients in desperate stages of incurable diseases. Such are told frankly and plainly the straight truth of their condition.

There is no reason for discussing the question of the guarantee with you or me. Here is a plain business proposition which settles the matter. It puts an end to argument. Drs. Copeland and Gardner say we either cure you or give back your money. There are no exceptions to this guarantee.

There is no reason for discussing the question of the guarantee with you or me. Here is a plain business proposition which settles the matter. It puts an end to argument. Drs. Copeland and Gardner say we either cure you or give back your money. There are no exceptions to this guarantee.

There is no reason for discussing the question of the guarantee with you or me. Here is a plain business proposition which settles the matter. It puts an end to argument. Drs. Copeland and Gardner say we either cure you or give back your money. There are no exceptions to this guarantee.

There is no reason for discussing the question of the guarantee with you or me. Here is a plain business proposition which settles the matter. It puts an end to argument. Drs. Copeland and Gardner say we either cure you or give back your money. There are no exceptions to this guarantee.

There is no reason for discussing the question of the guarantee with you